2017 Weingut von Othegraven Altenberg Riesling Kabinett

Rating: 94
Release Price: NA
Drink Date: 2025 - 2050

Reviewed by: Stephan Reinhardt
Issue Date: 27th Apr 2018
Source: 236, The Wine Advocate

The 2017 Altenberg Riesling Kabinett displays a clear, deep, flinty, very delicate and slightly floral bouquet. Mouthfilling, lush and round, this is a fine and elegant Kabinett with tropical fruit flavors, stimulating grip and mineral tension. Crisp fruit and crunchy slate flavors come out in the puristic, fascinatingly salty aftertaste. Excellent. Tasted in March 2018, three weeks after the bottling.

Producer: Othegraven, Von
From: Germany, Mosel
Color: White
Type: Table
Sweetness: Medium Sweet

Drink Date: 2028 - 2050

Reviewed by: Stephan Reinhardt
Issue Date: 27th Apr 2018
Source: 236, The Wine Advocate

The 2017 Kanzemer Altenberg Riesling Kabinett (Versteigerung) shows a concentrated and flinty nose. Lush and generous on the palate, this is a mouth-filling, very delicate and stimulatingly salty Altenberg. Light in body but complex and intense in taste, the finish is beautifully pure and salty, with crunchy slate flavors and intense yet refined and elegant fruit. A fabulous Kabinett that will be auctioned in Trier in September 2018. Tasted in March.

2017 Weingut von Othegraven Wiltinger Kupp Riesling Auslese

Rating: 95
Release Price: NA
Drink Date: NA

Reviewed by: Stephan Reinhardt
Issue Date: 27th Apr 2018
Source: 236, The Wine Advocate

The 2017 Wiltinger Kupp Riesling Auslese has a very clear, fresh and mineral bouquet of crunchy slate, citrus and spicy Riesling berries. Lush and piquant on the palate, this is an intense, concentrated, very mineral, pure and salty Auslese with great grip and tension. This is fabulous in its refreshing mineral expression and tightly woven structure. The sweetness is perfectly balanced by the body and mineral taste. Dangerously digestible. Tasted in March 2018, shortly after the bottling.

Producer: Othegraven, Von
From: Germany, Mosel

Slightly reductive on the nose but deep, mineral and complex, the 2017 Herrenberger Riesling Spätlese is lush and piquant on the palate, very elegant and full of finesse and tension. The fruit is ripe yet fresh and a bit minty, and the finish is fine and crystalline, revealing stimulating salinity and filigreed structure. Tasted in March 2018, three weeks after the bottling.

The 2017 Herrenberger Riesling Kabinett has a deep and quiet bouquet of ripe Riesling fruit intertwined with delicate, coolish flavors of crushed stones. Very precise and with crisp grape aromas. Tight, lean and very mineral on the pure and crystalline palate, this is a remarkably complex and expressive Herrenberger with pronounced but well-integrated, lingering mineral acidity that provides an enormously long, piquant finish. After the 2016, this is another extraordinary "grand cru" Kabinett from the Wawern Herrenberg. Tasted in March 2018, three weeks after bottling.

The 2017 Altenberg Riesling Spätlese has a warm, ripe and fruity/floral bouquet. Lush and racy-piquant on the palate, this is a lithe and crystalline, stimulatingly salty Spätlese that needs almost a decade to unfold its many talents. It's pretty sweet at the moment, and the acidity is still racy but not yet fully integrated.

The 2017 Altenberg Riesling Spätlese Alte Reben is still closed and discreet on the nose. Rich, lush, sweet and intense but with remarkable finesse in the background, this is a promising and mouth-filling Spätlese from 64-year-old vines right behind the domaine. Very sensual, fine and elegant. Tasted in March 2018, only three weeks after the bottling.

The 2017 Altenberg Riesling Auslese is very aromatic on the upfront nose that also reveals a lovely spicy slate aroma. Lush and generous, with expansive fruit and finely racy acidity, the 2017 was a bit disrupted at the moment of tasting in March 2018, just three weeks after bottling. Very piquant and salty in the aftertaste.

Picked at 115º Oechsle and with very fine botrytis, the 2017 Altenberg Riesling Auslese (Gold Capsule) offers a pure, slatey-piquant bouquet of concentrated Riesling aromas. Lush, vital and with fine raisin flavors on the palate, this is a sweet but deliciously racy and mouth-filling Auslese that reveals enormous length and finesse. Due to its great finesse, it’s light-footed but generous and absolutely delicious. Tasted March 2018.

The 2017 Kanzemer Altenberg Riesling Spätlese (Versteigerung) shows a very delicate and flinty bouquet with wet and clayey slate notes intermixed with fine Riesling aromas. Lush, round and racy on the palate, this is a filigreed, piquant Altenberg with a long, crystalline, fascinatingly fine, lingeringly salty and crisp finish. This is a great and stimulating Spätlese with remarkable complexity. Tasted in March, three weeks after the bottling. The wine will be auctioned in Trier in September 2018.

The 2017 Altenberg Riesling trocken GG displays a shining citrus-yellow color. Clear, ripe, concentrated and fresh on the nose, with piquant citrus and tropical fruit flavors, this is a full-bodied and textured Altenberg with some oaky (Stockinger?) notes that I didn’t pick up here before. The 2017 has power, concentration and length, but it is certainly far too young for a final comment. Tasted in Wiesbaden in August 2018.

The 2017 Wiltingen Kupp Riesling Kabinett displays a clear and flinty nose with iron aromas. Lush and delicate on the palate, this is a mouthwatering, salty-piquant and mineral Kabinett with a tight, grippy finish. Crisp Riesling flavors. Excellent. Tasted three weeks after the bottling in March 2018.
